

Mahatma Gandhi : Today and Tomorrow

UDAYAN, the Oxfordshire Bengali Cultural Society pays homage to the world's great apostle of peace and non-violence, Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi

www.udayan-oxford.org.uk

UDAYAN aims to promote Bengali culture and literature in Oxfordshire. We endeavour to integrate Bengali and Western values by organising social and cultural events involving people from both communities to celebrate the diversity.

Come and join us in the celebration of Gandhi's 140th Birth Anniversary

Outline of the Programme

A talk entitled, "Gandhi's practice of politics, his notion of communal harmony and his relevance today" by Vinita Damodoran, Professor of Modern History, University of Sussex.

A multimedia and live Presentation by UDAYAN featuring the main aspects of Gandhi's philosophy, accompanied with songs and English translations.

Time: Saturday 3rd October, 2009 7:15 – 9:15 PM

Venue: St. Anthony of Padua Community Hall, 115 Headley Way, Headington, Oxford OX3 7SS

There are free car parks near the venue.

Ticket: £5 (includes light snacks.)

For Further information or booking please contact

Joya Banerjee (01865 766344) or Minakshi Ghosh (01865 769122), or by email: webmaster@udayan-oxford.org.uk